

INFORMATION REPORT

CD NO.

COUNTRY China

DATE DISTR. 23 APR 51

SUBJECT Communist Indoctrination in Chinese Schools

NO. OF PAGES 2

25X1A

RETURN TO CIA
LIBRARYNO. OF ENCLS.
(LISTED BELOW)

25X1C

SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

25X1X

1. The Chinese Communists have set up winter schools by age and sex groups in villages as follows:

- a. Classes for women aged 12-35 - 2 hours each afternoon
- b. Classes for men aged 12-35 - 2 hours each night
- c. Classes for women aged 36-50 - 2 hours every other afternoon
- d. Classes for men aged 36-50 - 2 hours every other night

2. The curriculum for men includes the following topics:

- a. Profiteering exploitation of the capitalist class.
- b. Land rent reduction and loan interest reduction.
- c. Farmers' agony in China for over 3,000 years.
- d. The whole world was created by labor.
- e. Introducing stories of peasants' restitution in old liberated areas.
- f. Call the people to resist rural overlords and invasion!
- g. Intellectuals in various eras have been from the capitalist class and have been a stumbling block to the peasants' revolution.
- h. Course of peasants' revolutions in various eras and the cause of failure of these revolutions.
- i. The corruption and retrogression of the nationalist government versus the development and successes of the Communist revolution.
- j. Down with misloading orthodoxy by expelling American imperialism from Asia! The people should have been the orthodox masters of China instead of the emperors in various eras and the present nationalist government.
- k. A study of the current situation.
- l. Never expect miracles!
- m. Tackling the daily problems of the villages.

3. The curriculum for women includes the following topics:

- a. Women's agony in China for thousands of years under men's yoke because of constant restriction to their houses.
- b. Women must get square with their husbands and mothers-in-law backed by the village people's government and the Liberation Army as liberators of oppressed Chinese womanhood.

25X1A

(This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in accordance with the letter of 16 October 1978 from the Director of Central Intelligence to the Director of the United States
Next Review Date: 2008)

Approved For Release 2001/04/19 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007300560014-9

Document No.	g/p
No Change in Class.
<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Declassified
Class. Change Ind.	TS S G
Auth.: HR/702
Date: 31 JUL 1978	By: e/l

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

-2-

- c. Stories about heroines who can weave cloth and reel cotton yarn, lead women in the restitution movement, join the auxiliary units of the army, lead women in conveying army provisions, turn out army shoes, and comfort wounded soldiers.
4. Communists are also reorganizing regular schools for young people and are requiring them to take special courses in Communist indoctrination.
5. Primary schools have been established for each village of 100 families. Joint primary schools have been established for every 10 or 15 villages.* The primary school curriculum includes the following topics:
  - a. Stories of the people's restitution.
  - b. Japan was invited into China by the Kuomintang.
  - c. Northeast China was offered to Japan by CHIANG Kai-shek.
  - d. The United States is much worse than defunct Nazi Germany and militarist Japan. The United States is invading China and Asia in collusion with CHIANG Kai-shek.
  - e. Pointers for juveniles to stand guard against infiltration of spies and for assistance in the people's movement.
6. The high school curriculum includes the following topics:
  - a. Outline of a comprehensive history of China.
  - b. New democracy.
  - c. The long war with Japan.
  - d. The new stage.
  - e. Methods of thought.
  - f. Documents on ideological remodeling.
  - g. Revolution in the USSR, past and present.
  - h. Russian language.
  - i. General information about the USSR.
7. The government has ordered the establishment of two universities in each military district and province, the presidents of which are to be the military district commander and provincial government chairman respectively. Professors are appointed from Chinese Communist Party organizations or from political workers as designated by the military district commander or provincial government chairman. The curriculum includes the following topics:
  - a. Theories on Marxism-Leninism.
  - b. Stalin's teachings.
  - c. The New Democracy by MAO Tse-tung.
  - d. Documents on ideological remodeling.
  - e. A study of the USSR.

25X1A

* [REDACTED] Comment: Presumably the joint primary schools are set up for villages of less than 100 families.

CONFIDENTIAL